GENESIS

1st and 2nd Books of KINGS

Author – Uncertain
Time – 1000 to 586 BC
Summary – In the original Jewish texts, these books were regarded as one book. The two books contain the history of the Jewish monarchy from the death of David (around 970 BC) to the Babylonian exile (586 BC). They trace the division of the Jewish nation into the Kingdom of Judah in the south and the Kingdom of Israel in the north. 1 and 2 Kings record Israel's history from a religious, rather than a civil, viewpoint. As such, they record the religious progress of the nation and show the various steps in the moral growth and decay of the kingdom. 1 Kings opens with Israel in its glory, and 2 Kings closes with Israel in ruins. The purpose of the Book of Kings is to record the lives and characters of the nation's leaders as a warning and exhortation to all subsequent generations of believers.

1st and 2nd Books of CHRONICLES

Author – Ezra
Time – 1,050 – 536 BC
Summary – Like the Books of Kings, 1 and 2 Chronicles were originally one book, according to Jewish tradition. However, the Chronicles are not simply a repeat of the history already recorded in the books of Samuel and Kings. The book of Chronicles was written to remind the nation of their entire history, and of their position among other nations, emphasising the history of priestly worship from the death of Saul to the end of the Babylonian captivity. The Chronicles contain more detail on the organisation of public worship, of religious ceremonies, of Levites and singers, and of the relationship of kings to the worship of God, than does the book of Kings. The history of the northern kingdom is omitted from the Chronicles because the northern kingdom had no bearing on the development of the true worship of God in Jerusalem.

PROVERBS

Author – Solomon and others
Time – 1,000 to 700 BC
Summary – In the book of Proverbs, wisdom is the attitude which puts God first as man’s rightful guide and master. The book does not hesitate to link good and bad with reward and penalty. Much can be learned by testing personal conduct against the positive and negative standards and warnings as recorded in the Proverbs. Throughout the book, the view is presented that all men fall into two basic classes. Both are known by their habits, their deeds, their “fruits”, their chosen “ways” in life, and their fitting ends. They are either with God or without Him, good or evil, or wise or foolish. There is even a mutual tension between the two classes, the two ways of life, which shows up in every aspect of life.

ECCLESIASTES

Author – Solomon
Time – 960 BC
Summary – The name Ecclesiastes comes from the root meaning “to assemble together”. As such, the book forms a collection of many wise sayings and proverbs of Solomon. The book is mainly composed of observations of life. Solomon, having lived a full life with all its pleasures, concludes that life is “vanity”. “Vanity” in Ecclesiastes, and elsewhere in Scripture, does not mean foolish pride, but the emptiness of life apart from God. It means “that which soon vanishes away”. What better man to speak about life than a man who was given all it had to offer. Without God, life would be meaningless, and all his worldly possessions would amount to nothing. Therefore, the conclusion of his studies states that man should love and fear God and obey His commandments.

He comforted his people with the realisation that God loves those who are faithful to Him and keep His commandments. Summary – The book of Amos was written during a period of national optimism in the northern kingdom of Israel. King Jeroboam II was ruler, and politically and materially the northern kingdom rivalled the age of Solomon and David. Amos, a shepherd by trade, was called by God to pronounce judgement by denouncing Israel’s luxurious living, idolatry, and moral depravity. Amos urges the people to repent before the judgements of God come upon them. “Seek God and live”, was Amos’ plea to the nation. He also foretells the dispersion of the Israelites, but points to a day when God would regather them in the land of their forefathers.

MICAH

Author – Micah
Time – 735 to 700 BC
Summary – Micah, who was contemporary with Isaiah, was to the southern kingdom of Judah what Amos was previously to the northern kingdom of Israel. Both were fierce critics of the rich and powerful who exploited the poor. Though Micah’s prophecies refer especially to Judah, they concern all of Israel. Micah’s leading ideas are the regeneration of Israel’s remnant through judgement, the establishment of the kingdom of God in the line of David, and the conversion of the nations through that kingdom. The conclusion of his prophecy is a triumphant expression of faith, which is seen in its true quality against the background of the materialism and the corruption of the reign of Ahaz.

Time – 620 BC
Summary – The book of Nahum was written approximately 140 years after the events recorded in the book of Jonah. During that period of time, Nineveh had turned from its repentant attitude and had taken the northern kingdom of Israel into captivity. Whereas Jonah gives a message of mercy and repentance, Nahum gives an indictment of doom upon Nineveh, the capital of Assyria. They, who were once used as God’s tool against the people of Israel and Jerusalem, will now be destroyed because of their great wickedness.

MALACHI

Author – Malachi
Time – 500 to 475 BC
Summary – Malachi’s message comes to the people in a time of great spiritual decline. It is approximately eighty years after the rebuilding of the temple, and the promises of the coming Messiah have not yet happened. As a result, the people had become lax and had an increasingly casual attitude toward God and worship. Malachi states that their sacrifices were unacceptable to God, husbands were unfaithful, and the priests had neglected God’s covenants.

An unholy nation – Chapter 1 v 1 to 14

A faithless priesthood – Chapter 2 v 1 to 10

A treacherous people – Chapter 2 v 11 to 16

A nation of robbers – Chapter 2 v 17 to 3 v 15

A faithful remnant to be vindicated – Chapter 3 v 16 to 4 v 6
MATTHEW

Author – Matthew
Time – 4 BC to 30 AD
Summary – Matthew’s Gospel is aimed at a Jewish audience. Its purpose is to witness that Jesus was the promised Messiah of the Old Testament. Matthew emphasises the words of the Lord regarding the kingdom of heaven. This was done to counterbalance the popular Jewish belief of the day, that the Messiah would be a militant leader who would overthrow the current Roman occupation and re-establish the throne of David.

Key Verse – “… Jesus Christ, the Son of David, the Son of Abraham” Matthew 1 v 1

Unique Features – Matthew makes no less than sixty references to the Old Testament writings as fulfilled in Christ, so that the word “fulfilled” becomes characteristic of the book. The word “kingdom” occurs fifty-five times; “kingdom of heaven” thirty-two times; “son of David” seven times. The Jews laid great store on Scripture, and this Gospel, written particularly for them, abounds in such references.

Preparation – Chapter 1 v 1 to 4 v 11
1 v 1 to 2 v 23 Jesus’ birth
3 v 1 to 17 His baptism
4 v 1 to 11 His temptations

Preaching – Chapter 4 v 12 to 7 v 29
4 v 12 to 25 Proclaiming the kingdom
5 v 1 to 7 v 29 What Jesus taught

Eleven works showing Christ’s ability to rule – Chapter 8 v 1 to 10 v 42
8 v 1 to 4 The cleansing of the leper
8 v 5 to 13 Centurion’s servant healed of palsy
8 v 14 to 15 Peter’s wife’s mother’s fever
8 v 16 to 27 The stilling of the storm
8 v 28 to 34 Gergesene demoniacs healed
9 v 1 to 17 The man cured of the palsy

9 v 23 to 26 The ruler’s daughter raised
9 v 27 to 31 Two blind men given sight
9 v 32 to 38 The dumb demoniac healed
10 v 1 to 42 The apostles empowered to preach
There are a couple of digressions – see chapter 8 v 18 to 22 and 9 v 9 to 17 – but they are related to the miracles performed; the miracles revealed physically what the gospel can do spiritually.

What people thought: reactions to his call – Chapter 11 v 1 to 18 v 35

- 11 v 1 to 15 John the Baptist – in doubt
- 11 v 16 to 19 “This generation” – unresponsive
- 11 v 20 to 30 Galilean cities – unrepentant

MARK

Author – Mark

Time – 4 BC to 30 AD

Summary – The book of Mark describes in detail Jewish customs and is therefore thought to be aimed at a non-Jewish audience (in particular, Romans). Mark describes in very life-like terms the miracles of Jesus, and great detail is given of the crucifixion and death of Jesus. It is thought that Mark was the first of the four Gospels, probably written between 65 and 70 AD. It is thought that the book was taken by dictation from the apostle Peter, because some events contained in the book are unique to Peter.

Key Verse – “For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many,” Mark 10 v 45
Unique Features – Being originally written (as is thought) for Romans, there are very few references to the Old Testament Scriptures contained in this Gospel. Jewish words are explained (chapter 3 v 17; 5 v 41; 7 v 11 and 34; 14 v 36); and also Jewish customs (chapter 7 v 3 to 4; 14 v 12; 15 v 42). Latin expressions are frequently used such as Legion, centurion, etc. The Romans admired action, and this Gospel depicts the Lord as a worker.

11 v 1 to 14 v 42 Approached
14 v 43 to 15 v 47 Accomplished

Service Renewed – Chapter 16 v 1 to 20

LUKE

Author – Luke
Time – 4 BC to 30 AD
Summary – The book of Luke gives us the most complete look at the life of Jesus. Luke uses eyewitnesses as sources for his writings. He stresses Jesus’ humanity (since Luke was a doctor himself) and compassion as well as the power of the Holy Spirit and of prayer.

Key Verses – “Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, “Certainly this was a righteous man!” Luke 23 v 47

“For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.” Luke 19 v 10

Unique Features – The book was written particularly for Greeks, who delighted in wisdom, beauty and system. Luke, therefore, tells the story of Jesus, unfolding his development in a systematic manner, setting the facts in chronological order in a manner not attempted by the other writers. Luke was an artist with the pen, drawing the portrait of Jesus as the perfect man. He followed up by writing the book of Acts (the Acts of the Apostles).
The Son of Man in his human relationships – Chapter 1 v 1 to 4 v 13
  1 v 1 to 4 Prologue

  24 v 1 to 8 The initial appearance after resurrection
  24 v 9 to 53 The next forty days

JOHN

Author – John
Time – 4 BC to 30 AD
Summary – The book of John was written in order that men may believe that Jesus is the Son of God and consequently the redeemer of all who believe in him and the things concerning the kingdom of God. John cites eight signs to establish and prove this point, culminating in the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. John is the only one of the four Gospels that does not cite any parables; instead John emphasises that Jesus shows the character of God.

Key Verse – “But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.” John 20 v 31

Unique Features – There are many key words in John's Gospel, and dominant throughout is the word “believe”, which occurs over eighty times. The word, however, implies a belief that has developed into faith or conviction. As such, this Gospel was written for believers. They are enabled thereby to perceive the inner strength of Jesus, and to see that it stemmed from a greater than he, even God. Another peculiarity is the frequent use of the word “Jew”. It is only found once in Matthew, twice in Mark and in Luke, but over sixty times in John.
John concerns himself more with the Judean ministry, which Matthew and Mark hardly touch upon, and he records eight miracles (which he terms “signs”) that set in sequential order the whole purpose of God in Christ.

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES

Author – Luke

Time – 30 to 60 AD

Summary – Acts records the foundation and activities of the first-century church. It illustrates the struggles and problems that they faced as well as the solutions to overcome the problems. It describes the power that was given to a select number of men at Pentecost to promote the gospel. The book also traces the missionary journeys of Paul as he helped form churches throughout Asia Minor, south-eastern Europe and Rome.

The Witness to Christ

Key Verse – “But you shall receive power, when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” Acts 1 v 8

ROMANS

Author – Paul
Time – 58 to 60 AD
Summary – Paul was instructed by the Lord Jesus Christ to be a minister to the Gentile people. He begins the letter by showing how all men are sinners in the eyes of God and therefore worthy of death. However, Paul explains that Jesus Christ was the “last Adam” in whom no sin was found, and is able to provide an acceptable covering for men’s sin if they agree that God is always right, accept all that Jesus said and follow after him in their own lives. With this in mind, Paul explains the distinction between the Jews and the Gentiles and the final outcome of all things when the Lord Jesus returns to the earth to establish the kingdom of God.

Christ: the power of God to us

Key Verses – “For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first, and also for the Greek. For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, “The just shall live by faith.” Romans 1 v 16 and 17

1st and 2nd Letters to the CORINTHIANS

1 CORINTHIANS

Author – Paul
Time – 55 to 57 AD
Summary – Written to the church at Corinth by the apostle Paul. He deals with a series of problems and false teachings that were present in the newly formed church. Most members were from an immoral pagan background and were encouraged to change their way of life. There were also problems with those who tried to “blend” the teachings of Christ with the Law of Moses.

Christ: the wisdom of God to us

2 CORINTHIANS

Author – Paul
Time – 55 to 57 AD
Summary – This second letter to the church at Corinth was also penned by Paul. It was written after he made a “painful” and unsuccessful visit to the young church in an attempt to give instruction and guidance on several divisive issues. Upon learning that a majority of members had repented, he wrote the letter of 2nd Corinthians. It gives encouragement, yet teaches of the suffering that each member must face for the Lord Jesus’ sake. He concludes by surmising that when he is weakest, then God is able to work through him most powerfully. This letter was, in all likelihood, written about six months after the first letter to the Corinthians.

Christ: the comfort of God to us

Key Verses – “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and God of all comfort; who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.” 2 Corinthians 1 v 3 and 4

GALATIANS

Author – Paul
Time – 48 to 50 AD
Summary – The letter to the churches in Galatia focuses on the divisions that Jewish Christians were causing among new Gentile converts. These Judaisers were trying to convince the Gentiles that first, Paul’s authority was given by men and not by God, and secondly, that they needed to be circumcised and to keep the ritual law in order to be saved. Paul argues that both Jew and Gentile alike enjoy in Christ complete salvation. Through Christ they can be justified, that is, reckoned right with God, by association with the promises made to Abraham. Reliance on the Law would only lead to death, and could not produce life-giving freedom, as only Christ could grant that freedom. Paul was showing that all legalistic variations of the gospel are perversions of it and should be shown as such.

Key Verses – “… if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain.”
Galatians 2 v 21

“… Abraham “believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.”
Galatians 3 v 6

“For we … wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.” Galatians 5 v 5

EPHESIANS

Author – Paul

Time – 62 to 63 AD

Summary – The letter is divided into two sections. The first outlines the blessings and spiritual riches in Christ; the second the walk in imitation of Christ. The letter illustrates the abundance of spiritual riches that Christ himself received, namely grace, glory, mercy and immortality, and was written to foster the development of Christ-like behaviour. By doing so, the believer would learn to walk worthy of his vocation; not as Gentiles who know not God, but as children of light who show forth love and walk correctly in all aspects of life and action until the return of the Lord Jesus. It is thought that this letter was one of several letters which were circulated to the different churches in Asia and that it was written during Paul’s first imprisonment in Rome (Acts 28 v 30).

Key Verses – “The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power which He worked in Christ when He raised him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places” Ephesians 1 v 18 to 20

PHILIPPIANS

Author – Paul
Time – 62 AD
Summary – The tone of this letter is more personal in nature than any other letter. Paul outlines his own beliefs and states that all believers must not be self-centred in their lives, but must look to Christ for an example of self-sacrifice and unity in purpose. He further contrasts enemies of the cross with those who are friends of the Lord Jesus and the cross. It is thought that Paul wrote this epistle while he was in prison.

Christ: the sufficiency of God to us

Key Verses – “But what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ. Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ” Philippians 3 v 7 and 8

“Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Therefore let us, as many as are mature, have this mind …” Philippians 3 v 13 to 15

COLOSSIANS

Author – Paul
Time – 62 to 63 AD
Summary – The letter to Colosse was written in response to the heresies that were brought to Paul’s attention. The major errors that had crept into the church were:

- the worship of angels
- the belief that self-denial and religious rituals produce spirituality
- the claiming of a special knowledge beyond that found in the gospel of Christ.

Paul states that these are ideas based on human tradition and are therefore worthless. He teaches love, humility, submission to authority, and finally prayer to establish a believer in the wisdom of God.

Christ: The fullness of God to us

Key Verses – “Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the basic principles of the world, and not according to Christ. For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power. In Him you were also circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, buried with Him in baptism, in which you also were raised with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead”

Colossians 2 v 8 to 12

Introduction – Chapter 1 v 1 to 8

Doctrinal – “that you may be filled” – Chapter 1 v 9 to 2 v 23

Practical – “seek those things which are above” – Chapter 3 v 1 to 4 v 6

Personal – “that he may know your circumstances” – Chapter 4 v 7 to 18
1st and 2nd Letters to the THESSALONIANS

Author – Paul
Time – 50 AD
Summary – The main focus in these letters is the state of the dead in Christ. It deals with their resurrection and the future kingdom of God. Paul appears to have written these letters because of the large number of newly baptised believers in Thessalonica. He was forced out of the city by jealous Jews. The occurrence of “you know” in the letters indicates that Paul had begun to teach them but was interrupted and therefore wishes to solidify the subject matter. Further encouragement is given in the second letter regarding the punishment of those wicked men who were persecuting them.

He reveals his fears to Timothy of the dangers within the church and gives advice for the godly conduct of all individuals. The two letters to Timothy, along with that to Titus are often called the Pastoral letters, because they were addressed to pastors, or leaders, of churches and not to the churches themselves.

HEBREWS

Author – Probably Paul
Time – 63 AD
Summary – This letter persuasively presents the distinctiveness of Jesus Christ as the Son of God. The letter is primarily written to Jewish Christians who were wavering between Judaism and Christianity. Its primary message was to prove that Jesus Christ was the fulfilment of all Old Testament prophecy and symbol. With Christ as the fulfilment, there was no longer a need to offer the animal sacrifices, etc., required under the Mosaic Law. Christ is the high priest and mediator of all believers in all ages who look for the salvation of God.

Christ: the new and living way

Key Verses – “Therefore, brethren, having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way, which He consecrated for us, though the veil, that is, His flesh; and having a High Priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful. And let us consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching.” Hebrews 10 v 19 to 25
